

Aroma

This is a very interesting event in which the participants have to prepare the fragrance from the given flower. As various perfumes are prepared by various flowers to give a natural aroma. In this event participant have to make their own perfume from the given flower.

This event will be in two phases in the 1st phase the participants will be given the material to make the perfume and in the 2nd phase (2nd day) the participants will have to show the product.

Rules:-

- Participants have the team of two members.
- The product should be made by the given material only.
- The participant have describe the procedure how he made the perfume.
- The winner will be decided by the judge on the basis of best fragrance and quality.