

Are you a Leader???

Everyone wants to become a real engineer. One who is not only good in his technical field but also in his/her leadership qualities, can express their thoughts to other and make other to agree at the same point of view. If you are one of them then this is for you. Yes, if you want to prove yourself as a good leader then we are providing a platform to you.

Modern societies have developed Group Discussion as a tool to increase efficiency by giving people a sense of participation. It is also a common feature of admission in management institutes. The caliber of a candidate has been tested through written test, Psychological test; the final result by many organizations is made by a participation of a candidate in a Group Discussion. It is not the same as the formal debate but here we are creating a healthy platform for you." Life consists not in holding good cards but in playing those you hold good". So, keep this Phrase in your mind and rush through the registration for the event.

You will be given a topic on the spot and you will be provided a three minute time for analyzing your topic and collecting your facts. Three leaders are chosen among all the candidates and certificates will be provided to them according to the decision of Judges. Winners will be awarded by attractive cash Prize.
